

Building for the Future

This facility participates in the Child Care Food Program (CCFP), a Federal program that provides healthy meals and snacks to children in child care settings. Each day more than 4.2 million children across the country participate in the CCFP. Providers are reimbursed for serving nutritious meals that meet USDA requirements. The program plays a vital role in improving the quality of child care and making it more affordable for low-income families.

Meals

CCFP facilities follow meal requirements established by USDA.

Participating

Facilities

Many different facilities operate the CCFP and share the common goal of bringing nutritious meals and snacks to participants. Participating facilities include:

- Child Care Centers: Licensed or approved public or private nonprofit child care centers, Head Start programs, and certain for-profit centers
- Family Day Care Homes: Licensed private homes
- Afterschool Programs: Sites that provide educational or enrichment programming and are located in low-income areas
- Homeless Shelters: Emergency shelters that provide temporary shelter to homeless children

Eligibility

State agencies reimburse facilities that offer non-residential child care to the following children:

- children age 12 and under,
- migrant children age 15 and younger, and
- children through age 18 in eligible afterschool programs and homeless shelters.

Civil Rights

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity. Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:
